The world is upside down

We don't know who is wise and who is foolish

The world is upside down

We don't know whether to laugh or cry

The world is upside down

We can't make sense of any of it

God tunes our hearts to find new ways

God tunes our ears to hear new stories

We can find our way through

By following Jesus

We can find our way with God's grace.

Scripture: Matthew 5:1-12

Bright Einstein Nogoh

Jesus found himself increasingly surrounded by crowds of people, so one day he headed off up the mountain. He sat down up there, and his committed followers gathered around to hear what he had to say. This is what he taught them:

Those who depend entirely on God for their welfare
have got it made,
because they are already at home in the culture of heaven.
Those who are stricken with grief
have got it made,
because they will receive the ultimate comfort.
Those who allow others to have first claim on everything
have got it made,
because the whole world will be given to them.
Those who hunger and thirst to see the world put right
have got it made,
because they will be richly satisfied.
Those who readily treat others better than they deserve
have got it made,
because they will be treated with extravagant mercy.
Those whose hearts are unpolluted
have got it made,
because they will see God.
Those who forge peace and reconciliation in places of hostility
have got it made,
because they will be known as God's own children.
Those who are attacked and abused for sticking to what is right
have got it made,
because they are already at home in the culture of heaven.

When people turn on you and do all they can to make your life a misery;
when they make false allegations about you and drag your name through the mud, all because of your association with me, you have really got it made!
Kick up your heels and party, because heaven is coming
and you will be rewarded beyond your wildest dreams!
You are in great company, because they were just as vicious to God's faithful messengers in the past.

The word of God to us. Thanks be to God.

Scripture: I Corinthians 1:18-31

Bright Einstein Nogoh

For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written,

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart."

Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scholar? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, God decided, through the foolishness of the proclamation, to save those who believe. For Jews ask for signs and Greeks desire wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to gentiles, but to those who are the called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

Consider your own call: not many of you were wise by human standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth. But God chose what is foolish in the world to shame the wise; God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong; God chose what is low and despised in the world, things that are not, to abolish things that are, so that no one might boast in the presence of God. In contrast, God is why you are in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification and redemption, in order that, as it is written, "Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord."

The word of God for us. Thanks be to God.

Affirmation of Faith by Lorraine Parkinson

Rev. Good

I believe in Jesus' vision of the best kind of world made known to us in his teaching.

Jesus said: Fortunate are the humble-minded;
they will live in the best possible world.

Fortunate are the mournful;
they will face the future with strength.

Fortunate are the non-violent;
they will govern the earth.

Fortunate are those whose passion is for justice;
they will receive justice.

Fortunate are the compassionate;
they will receive compassion.

Fortunate are the undivided in heart;
they will commit to the way of Jesus.

Fortunate are the peacemakers;
they will forgive and reconcile humanity.

Fortunate are those in danger for living Jesus' way;
they will be freed from fear to follow him...

And I believe that all who follow him will create a world according to Jesus.

We invite you to use your chosen words for God: Father, Mother, or...

Our Creator, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

*Doxology

words by Mary Luti, tune Old 100th (95, large hymnal)

Praise Spirit, making justice grow – One God from whom all blessings flow! Amen.

Sharing in Communion, liturgy by Thom Shuman

May the God of foolishness be with you.

And also with you.

People of God, open your hearts.

We offer them to the God who transforms us.

Join in singing praises to our God.

With joy and wonder, we lift our voices.

You were foolish enough to overcome chaos, Wise God,
speaking to hills blanketed with snow,
pleading your hopes before the mountains,
spinning planets into the night sky -
creating all that is wonderful, including us, people shaped in your image.
But we thought we knew better than you,
running after death's false wisdom, chasing sin's silly teachings.
Miriam and Moses, Hannah and Micah were among those you sent to call us back to your heart, but we boasted of our exploits, drowning out their impassioned pleas.

So you sent Jesus to us, the source of our life and hopes.
With those who wonder what to offer,
with all who seek to worship you,
we sing songs of praise to you:

Holy, holy, holy are you, God of the Blessed.
All creation rejoices in your saving acts. Hosanna in the highest!
Blessed is the One whose weakness is our strength. Hosanna in the highest!

Holiness is your nature, God of our lives,
and Jesus Christ is your gift of salvation.
Foolishness enough to become one of us,
    his wisdom filled every word, every action.
He left your side in glory,
    so we might realize we could build
        our lives in your neighborhood.
Weakened by dying on the cross,
    he went into the grave,
        your resurrecting love strengthening him
            to defeat the power of sin and death.

As we seek to comprehend his life,
as we are transformed by his grace,
we speak of that mystery we call faith:

Christ died, humbling himself on the cross;
Christ was raised, filled with your righteousness;
Christ will come, so we may inherit your kingdom.

Here around the Table, with our siblings beside us, your Spirit comes, foolishly transforming simple, everyday elements into sacred gifts.
We eat the Bread which is broken,
    so we can serve your children,
        refusing to harm neighbor or stranger,
            seeking to treat others fairly.
We drink from the Cup which is blessed,
    so we may be foolish enough to comfort all who mourn,
        to believe that peace can be a reality.

And when all human wisdom
is supplanted by the foolishness
of eternal life with you in your kingdom,
we will join with those of every time and place
in singing your glorious praise,
God in Community, Holy in One. Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

We have been nourished by God's grace and hope,
and so we will go to those who hunger for justice,
as well as to those who thirst for reconciliation.

We are called to follow the One who is weak and powerless,
and so we will bring healing to the broken among us,
as well as comfort to those who grieve in every moment.

We learn what is right and good from the Holy Spirit,
and so we will go as fools to be blessings to the wise,
as well as to do not what is easy, but what is difficult.
